

The Rabbit Hole

INFO SHEET

The Rabbit Hole is part of The Lighthouse creative precinct located at 126 Margaret Street Toowoomba. With a youth writing centre, Book Links, artists, and other creatives on site, this 'for hire' workshop space is available to any local wishing to share their creative practice.

The Rabbit Hole has its own access from the carpark, and with its substantial amount of glass walls, is a generously light-filled, uplifting and engaging space.

For booking enquiries: hello@thelighthouse.toowoomba.org

Extra information:

- There are two toilets available in the adjacent offices in the Gallery, and a very basic kitchenette (tea and coffee making facilities only).
- A reception desk located just opposite the entrance (Please note that there is no facility for the storage of personal valuables or effects, so all volunteers and guests are required to maintain possession of their own particulars at all times).
- Cleaning will be scheduled prior to a workshop booking and it is the responsibility of the workshop organiser to maintain the venue during the workshop period. Cleaning products and aids are available.
- The light switches, and information is all located at in the kitchenette.
- The airconditioning control is at the western end of the space, beside the overhead cupboards.
- Workshop Organiser is responsible for all catering, all promotion and marketing.
- The Lighthouse will include information about the exhibition on the website.
